

01 How to use the Runners' map screen

1 Runners' map

The runners you added in Step 3 will appear on the map. Toilets, water & food stations will also be shown on it.

2 Setting a cheering spot

You can set a cheering spot.

For further information, please see "setting a cheering spot".

3 Searching for a runner

You can search for the runner whom you are supporting and add him/her to the map. For further information, please see "Searching for a runner".

4 List of runners

The runners you added in Step 3 will be displayed in ranking by location.

● Full marathon ● Challenge Run

Displayed in the above lines.

Selecting a runner also allows you to obtain detailed information on him/her.

Alternatively, obtain runner's information by clicking the pin saying "Click here for more information on the map".

For further information, please see "How to Operate the Runners' Information Screen".

5 Cheer Messages

Cheer messages from supporters will be displayed.

6 Runner ranking

The ranking of runners participating in full marathon (men), full marathon (women) and wheel chair race will be displayed.

* When a runner passes through 5 km, a ranking will appear.

04 Searching for a runner

1

Click Runners' map.

2

Click "Search".

3

Enter the runner's number (as shown on the number card) or the name in the search box to search for a runner.

- * Please enter the name in roman letters or the runner's number as shown on the number's card and tap "Search".
- * Fuzzy search where meeting in front is available.

4

When said runner is found, "Add" and "See detailed information" buttons will appear.

Please select either of the two, then close the screen.

- * When you want to delete a runner you previously added, delete from the runners' information screen.

5

The runner you selected and added in Step 4 will then be displayed on the "Runners' map" and "List of runners".

05 How to Operate the Runners' Information Screen

The screenshot shows the 'ランナー情報' (Runner Information) screen. At the top, there's a header with the 'ランナーズ・アイ' logo and navigation links. Below the header, a map displays the runner's current location (井尾ひかり). A table below the map shows the runner's time data. At the bottom, there's a section for posting cheer messages.

1

After setting the cheering spot, the expected time of arrival for the runner you added at your selected cheering spot will be displayed. If you didn't set a cheering spot or the runner has already passed the spot, --: -- will appear.

2

If you want to support this runner / cancel, you can do so via this screen.

You can add a runner on "Runners' map" and "List of runners" or delete the runner from the list.

3

Current location of the runner

You can identify the location of the runner.

4

Time data of the runner

The time data of the runner will be displayed.

5

Movie button

You can watch runners running on the movie.

6

Let's cheer on runners!

The cheer message posted in Step 7 will be displayed.

The messages will also be displayed as "Cheer Messages" on the home page.

7

A button to post your cheer message

You can post a message to the runner you added.

* If you check "Display your current cheering spot to the message screen", then your current location will be displayed as shown on the screen example 6 to the left.

(Your cheering spot won't be displayed on "Cheer Messages" on home page.)
